

The Queen's Foundation
for Ecumenical Theological Education
Birmingham

IS DELIGHTED TO HOST THE BOOK LAUNCH OF

'a model of liberative practical theology that is capable of energising activists and earthing academics'

Monday 4th December 6pm Wakefield Room

Queen's Foundation for Ecumenical Theological Education
Somerset Road Birmingham B15 2QH

WITH THE AUTHOR

And respondents

Revd Dr Barbara Glasson

Barbara is a Methodist minister and weaver. She is currently engaged in interfaith work in Bradford where she is team leader at Touchstone, a project working in partnership with Pakistan, supporting Christian communities and enhancing interfaith understanding both locally and internationally.

Mr Haroon Ravat

A Community Activist and currently employed as Community Cohesion Officer at Walsall Council, Haroon has been involved in local initiatives on Islamic culture & history, interfaith engagement and community development

ALL WELCOME

RSVP to Anjana Parmar a.parmar@queens.ac.uk 0121 452 2600