

p n p

breaking down / breaking through:

Political Night Prayer

takes place on Sunday 7 May 7.30 – 9.00 p.m.

at The Cotteridge Church

Pershore Road South, B30 3EJ

What feels like a global nervous breakdown, makes many of us anxious, frightened, angry, unsure how to respond and perhaps longing to find hope. This evening will focus both on societal and individual mental health and will include contributions by Sue Martin of the Laura Centre (offering specialist bereavement counselling) in Coventry and Rev Prof Frances Young.

political night prayer takes place between the realities of our public life and our hope in God's future.